Spooning vs. Business.

We have a telephone—Bell, Sometimes I wish 'twas in—well, The love sick are spooning, Some fool dove is crooning, All telling how simple they dwell, With a "te-hee and a "Oh! My!" Wouldn't that get ye? "I die!" Then you try to ring central, And sprain your left ventricle, But all you can hear is "Oh! My."

The Pennies in the Box.

I'm Uncle Sam's most favored pet,
I'm hearty and I'm hale;
I've nothing in this world to do,
But glide 'round with the mail.
But one thing almost breaks my heart,
And my nervous system shocks;
It's the everlasting pennies,
That I'm fishing from the box.
I carry stamps and envelopes,
And postal cards and such;
And I would like to sell a few—
'Twould please me very much.
But a man can't sell unless you buy,
No matter how he talks;
So I have to keep on diving,
After pennies in the box.
It's all right in the spring time,
Or when the summer breezes blow;
But it's a different proposition,
When it's thirty-two below.
When all your fingers and your toes,
Are frozen hard as rocks;
It's anything but funny,
Scratching pennies from the box.
And now, quite confidentially,
I'll tell you something more;
A rural carrier (way out west),
'Forgot himself and swore;
Says he, "I can stand the snow drifts,
I can stand the frozen locks,
But blast the measly pennies,
In the blasted measly box."
When the roll is called up yonder,
And we all shall gather there;
They wouldn't let a man in,
If they knew he learned to swear.
If you want St. Peter to open the gate,
When your rural carrier knocks,
Buy stamps and don't be guilty,
Of putting pennies in the box.

Working at the Dupont Plant.

George Nugent Writes of Conditions at Carney's Point.

Carney's Point, N. J.
Feb. 5, 1916.

DEAR ING:—

Just a few lines to let you know how things are going on down here on the Delaware. I was transferred to Hagley yards, but am still on guard duty for the Duponts. I saw the airship last night on the midnight shift, that you have doubtless read about flying over the Dupont plants and was feared was trying to blow them up, and for a few minutes, believe me, I thought the sweetest thing about Carney's Point was the first train out. Thought I saw William himself and that he had his lamps on me.

They are now taking finger prints and pictures of all employees. The powder is loaded in French and Italian warships that dock here at Clinton Beach. We are now on a ten million dollar order for France. Employ about 75,000 men in the three plants. Had a very big explosion January 28th which destroyed $100,000 worth of 14 inch cannon powder.

Well, Bill, I am enjoying the best of health, nevertheless, hope to hear the same from you, and after all the best news of all is my Silver Springs Signal.

Yours very sincerely,
GEO. L. NUGENT.
