THE AMBASSADOR BY NASH —TWIN-IGNITION-MOTORED

THOUSANDS of people who drive the Twin-Ignition-motored Nash "400" Ambassador have discovered that the most luxurious type of motoring is not necessarily prohibitive in price.

Obvious to every eye is the style and thoroughbred character of this charming motor car. There is beauty in the purity and grace of every line and curve. There is luxury in every item of interior dress and decoration, from inlaid walnut panellings to the deep, overstuffed cushions, upholstered in fabrics restricted to fine car manufacture.

And equally obvious, to those who know good motor cars, is the high quality of "400" engineering and Ambassador performance. Here, in this moderately priced car, is the Twin-Ignition motor, the year's most notable achievement in power. Another very attractive "400" feature is the "world's easiest steering."

And the Ambassador is one of the easiest riding cars ever built. The wheelbases 130 inches. These springs are built of special process alloy steel, individually designed for Ambassador size and weight, and outboard mounted Houdaille double action, hydraulic shock absorbers are regular equipment.

Other features of convenience and quality which Nash volume makes it possible for you to have at Ambassador price, are Bijur Centralized Chassis Lubrication and Chromium-nickel bumpers front and rear—at no extra charge.

Volume and its manufacturing economies plus Nash engineering skill make possible this value. More than 168,000 Nash "400s" were built and sold in the 12 months (just ended) since the "400" introduction.

Delivered, Fully Equipped Price Range of 23 Nash "400" models includes Touring, Roadster, Coupe, Cabriolet, Victoria and Sedan Models

Work on Evaporator

John Dean has commenced work in making changes in the equipment at his evaporator at the station. The apple paring machines which were in the first floor last season have been removed and that room will be used as a storage for apples. The old machines will be discarded, five in number, and ten of the latest style will be installed in the room on the second floor.

The gasoline engine has been removed and a seven horse power electric motor will furnish the power. A slicer of the latest type will also be placed on the roof. Just as soon as the work of completing the new house for Mrs. Will Sanford in Perry, which Mr. Dean is working on and masons are now plastering, is completed, a full gang of men will start work on the evaporator changes.

1930 Buick Has New Body Lines

The 1930 Buick makes its debut this week on the showroom floors of approximately 4,000 dealers throughout the country and, according to factory officials at Flint, Michigan, this new creation will prove one of the outstanding sensations of the year in both performance and appearance.

The Buick line, as in former years, is divided into three series. The wheelbase and the horsepower of all models of the three series have been increased. The wheelbase of the six models of the 40 series has been increased from 116 to 118 inches and the engine has been stepped up to 80½ horsepower.

Wheelbase on the two models in the series 50 line is increased from 121 inches to 124 inches and on the six models of 60 series from 129 inches to 132 inches. Models in the 50 and 60 series have an engine which will develop 99 horsepower. All models in all series have an actual speed well up in the seventies.

In addition to lengthening the wheelbase, the car has been built lower. Body lines and contours have been refined, the shape of the radiator revised, the margin of the radiator shell diminished and thermodynamically operated shutters added to the front. The result is a car of unusual beauty, fleet lines and obvious comfort. The body bears the stamp of Fisher craftsmanship.

Many mechanical advances have been embodied in the 1930 Buick. A steering wheel road-shock eliminating device is one of them and this feature, coupled with a fully adjustable worm and roller type steering assembly, makes the new car singularly easy to steer and handle at high speeds on the open road and in slow moving heavy traffic.

Semi-elliptic springs and double acting shock absorbers are used together with four wheel internal expansion controlled Servo brakes, redesigned transmission and clutch, improved rubber motor mounting and a wider and sturdier chassis frame. A sloping non-glare windshield is another advancement incorporated in the new Buick.

Performance tests, conducted over a period of several months at the General Motors Proving Grounds have demonstrated that its speed, hill climbing ability and riding comfort set a new all-around precedent in the field of automobile travel.

Jack Robinson and Leon Tyler are painting the house for Mrs. Martha Hartley in Chapel St.

Frank Hubbard has made quite a change for the better in the appearance of his South Main St. lawn. Before the work from the street to the house was in the center of the lot. He now has two walks on a quarter-circle, running from either corner, with shrubs placed about at advantageous points. The walks are made by placing small pieces of sawed blue stone in a cement foundation, the first of this style to be laid in this village.

It makes no difference how much a property owner tries to keep his lawn and buildings in attractive condition for hundreds of strangers passing through the village every week, it may be that the adjoining property, owned by out of town people and vacant, if left for weeds to grow from two to six ft. high. At the request of many people in and near Lamont, Rev. William J. Blankley conducted a service in the Lamont church last Sunday evening. With many plans ahead and the fact that Rev. Blankley is leaving this territory shortly, it was no doubt the last time that he spoke in that church.
