Miss Golibersuch, T. J. Franclemont Wed In Buffalo

Miss Maryann Golibersuch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Golibersuch, Lovejoy St., Buffalo, and Thomas J. Franclemont, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Franclemont, Bering Ave., Town of Tonawanda, were married April 23 in Visitation Church, Buffalo. The Rev. James McCarthy officiated.

The bridal gown was styled with a French lace bodice and a scapp neckline edged in rose petals. The net bouffant ruffled skirt was floor length. An illusion veil was held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms and the bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white gardenias centered with an orchid.

In a gown of blue crystallette, Mrs. Robert Stackpoole was matron of honor. Her bouquet was yellow roses and blue iris. The bridesmaid, Miss Carol Golibersuch, was attired in a blue gown of net over taffeta. Her bouquet was similar to that of the matron of honor.

Robert Franclemont was best man. Ushers were Robert Stackpoole and Clarence Golibersuch. A reception in the Club Como followed the ceremony.
